HOARDS OF INDIA WORTH A BILLION

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Jan. 24.—The "hoarded treasure" of India is estimated by the Financial Review at over £400,000,000. Most of this is believed to be hidden in comparatively small sums. It is a financial axiom in London that all the gold and silver which is sent to India annually by the British government is immediately absorbed and passes quickly out of circulation. In India, however, the existence of any really important hidden wealth is declared a myth.

and incidentally the speculation would be greater."

Mr. Noble testified that he had read in the newspapers that manipulation by short sellers were conducted, but added that none had ever been investigated by the board of governors. Whipple pursued this line of interrogation vigorously, demanding to know why, in the face of many persistent reports of short selling in "responsible journals," the board had taken no action. Noble said there had never been a clear case that he knew of.

Bernard Baruch, who sold U. S. Steel short heavily about the time the alleged "leak" occurred, and who had been declared by rumor to have been one of the beneficiaries of advance information, attended the meeting with his records, prepared to testify.

ANCIENT CONTRACT USED AT MARRIAGE

NIECE OF TONOPAH MERCHANT MARRIED WITH IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY

(By Associated Press.) SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—The Kethuba, the ancient Jewish marriage contract, read in Aramaic, the language Christ used at the last supper, was observed at the wedding of Rabbi Herman Rosenwasser to Miss Bertha Shemanski today in this city. This is the first rabbinical wedding held in 22 years. Rabbi Jacob Neito, the last rabbi married, was celebrant today. Rabbi Michael Fried of Sacramento read the Kethuba.

The bride is a niece of B. Shemanski, the Tonopah jeweler, who left for San Francisco last Saturday to attend the nuptials.

COLORADO PUTS OUT LOBBYISTS

(By Associated Press.) DENVER, Jan. 24.—Speaker Best created a sensation in the house when he ordered the sergeant at arms to exclude from the floor all persons interested for or against any measures before the legislature.

GERMAN EDITORS SLOW TO TALK

(By Associated Press.) BERLIN, Jan. 24.—Newspapers are slow to express an opinion of the president's speech. The text was received shortly before they went to press. The headlines are non-committal.

NO ORDERS ISSUED TO PERSHING'S ARMY

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—No more supplies will be sent Pershing from the United States. No orders have been issued him to withdraw and no specific time has been set. The present movement from El Valle was on Pershing's own initiative, based on his knowledge that the troops would not remain long in Mexico.

W. A. FOGG LAID TO REST UNDER MASONIC AUSPICES

Bearing an empty saddle with the boots turned backward in the stirrups a black horse followed the remains of the late W. A. Fogg, county clerk of Washoe county for 16 years, who died Sunday morning, to the Masonic cemetery Tuesday afternoon, where the body was laid to rest.

The funeral, conducted by DeWitt Clinton Commandery, Knights Templar, was one of the most impressive ceremonies held in Masonic temple. Aside from the members of the commandery, the I. O. O. F. lodges and hundreds of friends gathered in the hall of the commandery to pay their last respects to one of Reno's pioneer and best known citizens.

PRESIDENT MAY SPEAK ON PEACE

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The president is considering a suggestion to make a number of speeches in different parts of the country after congress adjourns in the campaign of education in connection with ideas expressed in his peace address to the senate. He will not reach a conclusion for several weeks.

PYTHIAN BIRTHDAY WILL BE OBSERVED

SPLENDID PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR EVENT WHICH OCCURS ON FEBRUARY 19

Mizpah lodge, K. of P., is engaged preparing a fine program to celebrate the anniversary of the founding of the order by Justus H. Rathbone in Washington, D. C., February 19, 1864. The entertainment will be held in Oddfellows hall, when a musical and oratorical program will be presented.

The members of Mizpah lodge are to be congratulated on the fact that they are out of debt and have money in the bank to the credit of the order. When the fire swept away the home of the Pythians the money derived from insurance was not equal to the task of paying off old obligations and the lodge has been devoting every spare dollar to defraying the indebtedness. Mizpah still owns the site of the old Castle Hall, where the Airdome is located.

DUCKWATER PIONEER LADY PASSES AWAY

MOTHER OF MRS. J. C. TOGNONI DIES AT THE RIPE OLD AGE OF 96 YEARS

News has been received of the recent death of Mrs. Marie Cross, mother of Mrs. J. C. Tognoni, at the ripe old age of 96 years. Deceased was also the mother of Mrs. W. F. Mendes and was one of the few survivors of the days when travelers came to this country by the ox team route. This was in 1852, when cholera was raging and the trail was beset by hostile Indians who were killing whole trains of immigrants. The old lady often told of her first setback in the country, when she lost all her belongings in a little cabin erected on the site of the present Sacramento when a flood swept the house off the map. The memory of the venerable lady is revered by over 100 descendants living in Nevada and California.

The crown prince got a paragraph the other day. Knew he'd get something, if he kept sticking around Verdun.—Atlanta Constitution.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SECRETARIES

Your attention is called to the following extract from the Nevada Statutes: Chapter CVIII, Nevada Statutes, 1901: Amended Statute, 1913, Chapter 194: Section 1. All foreign corporations doing business in the State of Nevada shall, not later than the month of March in each year, beginning in the year 1914, publish a statement of their last year's business in some newspaper published in the State of Nevada. If published in a daily newspaper, such statement shall be published for a period of one week, or if published in a semi-weekly or tri-weekly newspaper, for a period of two weeks; or if published in a weekly newspaper for a period of four weeks.

The penalty for not complying with the above law is a fine of $100 for each month that the published statement remains unfilled with the several assessors of the state.

Kindly fill out the attached blank and mail to the "TONOPAH BONANZA PRINTING COMPANY, Tonopah, Nevada." We make a nominal charge of $10.00 for publication, which includes the filing of a sworn affidavit of publication with each of the assessors of the sixteen counties of the state.

WOMAN HELD UP IN THE CATHEDRAL

ONE OF MISCREANTS CLAIMS TO HAVE BEEN RESIDENT OF SAN FRANCISCO

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The vestibule of St. Patrick's cathedral was the scene of a holdup today. A young woman was entering when two youths seized her. One snatched her purse and the other choked her, after which they threw her down and escaped. After a chase the police arrested two youths who said they were Charles S. Ward of San Francisco and Edward Malbertson, New York.

PORTUGAL ROASTS PRESIDENT WILSON

(By Associated Press.) LISBON, Jan. 24.—The Secule, in commenting on the president's speech, says he has the "genius of inopportunity." "Is inexhaustible as an inventor of untimely pacifist systems, inapplicable to present conditions. One can only praise the idealistic courage with which he continues to proclaim ideals which not even are original. The only practical peace lies in the permanent destruction of the germ of war incorporated in the Prussian system."

SPLIT IN PARLIAMENT

(By Associated Press.) TOKIO, Jan. 24.—The majority group in parliament opened a campaign against the Terrauchi administration by introducing a resolution of lack of confidence today.

AUSTRIA STAVING OFF BANKRUPTCY

MAY CONFISCATE ONE-FOURTH OF REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY

(By Associated Press.) PARIS, Jan. 24.—A Geneva correspondent says Austria, to stave off "imminent bankruptcy," is about to submit a decree to the emperor whereby a fourth part of all real and personal property of all subjects, inhabitants of the empire, becomes property of the state in exchange for a mortgage bond which the state binds itself to redeem when the financial situation permits.

BUTLER THEATER

Tonight will be "Circus Night" at the Butler. Come and bring the children, for it will be worth seeing. The picture is "The Rainbow Princess," a thrilling drama of circus life under the big white top. The circus, with all the background of billowing canvas, the freaks, the menagerie, baloon ascension and parachute drop, the animals and circus fight, and featured in this wonderful picture is the beautiful, captivating Anne Pennington, the celebrated Ziegfeld Follies star. Miss Pennington makes a baloon ascension and a parachute drop. She actually appears in the lions' cage in some scenes. The celebrated Hula Hula dance in which Miss Pennington distinguished herself on the stage with the Ziegfeld Follies is introduced, with the famous Hawaiian orchestra accompanying her as they do on the stage. Come early, get a good seat and prepare to be entertained. The preliminary reel, "Nobody Home," a Sidney Drew comedy. Tomorrow, Ruth Roland, of "Who Pays" fame, in "The Sultan," a thrilling comedy-melodrama in Pathe color, a beautiful picture.

LIBERTY THEATER

"Friday the Thirteenth," a story of the stock exchange, written by a man who knows it from A to Z. Thomas W. Lawson's name, wherever mentioned, is generally affiliated with the stock exchange. Followers of this sport generally regard a tip from Lawson as worth the savings of a lifetime. Quite naturally, one with such a hold on the market would necessarily command attention if he were to write a story of the market. His novel, "Friday, the 13th," stirred the bulls and bears to their inner cells. Also will be shown the International Weekly, containing all the current events. Tomorrow, "The Evil Women Do," a Bluebird production in five reels, featuring Elsie Jane Wilson and Hobart Henley, and a two-reel Keystone comedy, "His Hereafter." A two-hour show.
